

Position: Teacher/Educationist/Teacher Trainer

Type: Full time or Part-time

Who can apply: Professionals experienced in any of the fields: Soft skill training, creative development, curriculum/training program design, non-formal education

Skills required: Research, IT and English skills, Facilitation and teaching skills. Understands the nature of non-formal education and innovative learning, animation skills are of advantage, management background is of advantage

Main objective: To develop new and improve existing training programmes, aimed at enriching the students' learning experience.

Work overview:

- Assessing the learning needs of students and teachers
- Planning, implementing and evaluating innovative learning and teaching methods
- Designing learning sessions, materials, media and tools for short-term for diverse learning programs
- Designing Training offers/proposals
- Designing and conducting need based student/teacher training courses
- Possible training scope: curriculum planning and teaching skills, creative development, social skills, personality development, problem solving and critical thinking, other soft skills, can be specific subject related: Maths course, Physics experiment based courses, Social science and history, language and creative writing courses
- Age group: 6 and above/adults/teachers
- Growth opportunity: leading and managing the entire education development across various projects and programs.

Nature of work: 3 months project based assignments. May be involved in other organizational function.

Benefits: Transport included in the stipend; Remote work possibilities; Other benefits provided

Deadline for applications: Applications can be submitted throughout the year.

Location of work: Kamdhenudham Gaushala, Palam Vihar, Gurgaon/ Dharamsala, Pachgaon, Manesar